

SIXTH

TRUSTEES

A. Each of the Trustees, acting singly, shall have the right to designate one or more additional or successor Trustees to act with him or her or in his or her place. If either of the original named Trustees is no longer acting, then any successor or additional Trustee shall have the right to designate one or more additional or successor Trustees to act with him or her or in his or her place.

B. Designations shall be in writing and may be revoked in writing by the maker thereof, at any time prior to the qualification of the Trustee so designated.

C. Any Trustee may resign by giving notice to take effect on the date specified in said notice, except that if the resigning Trustee is the last acting Trustee, and no successor designated pursuant to the provisions of this Article is available to succeed him or her, then his or her resignation shall not be effective until he or she designates a successor and such successor qualifies to act.

D. A Trustee may resign or qualify only by a written instrument mailed or delivered to a Trustee then acting, or if none, to his or her successor, in the case of a resignation, or in any case to the Grantor.

E. The Grantor shall have the power at any time and from time to time to remove any Trustee of the Trust by a written instrument, duly
