Attached is the spreadsheet of all accounts including account type, current (cash only) balances as of today, and interest rates. I've added a column for notes to distinguish the cash within the brokerage accounts. Let me know if you need anything else 😊

Kind regards,

Classification: For internal use only

Let's look at cash balances by account and rate for each. Not sure whether he gets individual or business rates. Can you also see how much cash he has in his brokerage?

Thanks
