Jeffrey -

Positive momentum behind copper (3mo currently 7013, see chart below). FYI, DB traders want to see a close above 7050 before they consider this a sustained break-out.
My view: take the gains and be done, work order ~$276/MT.

Indicative bid and charts below (recall: you initiated your position at $265/MT, 1250 MT on 4/7/14).

Spot Ref: 3m $7013/MT
Bid: $275.71/MT ($344,637.50, +$13,388 vs your cost), 15% Vol
Mid: $285.60 ($357,000), +$25,750), 15.6% Vol

The above is a DB bid.
I did check away (Susquehana) and they quoted same 15 vol bid, 15.5 mid.
At these vols, would need to see $7025 on spot to see $280/MT on the option, or $350k on your position, +18,750 gain.

Regards,
Tazia
