

Termsheet Disclaimer – Important Notice

This term sheet has been prepared solely for discussion purposes and does not constitute an offer, an invitation or a recommendation to enter into any transaction. Terms and conditions herein are indicative and subject to change and/or negotiation between us. Although the information herein has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable, we do not warrant its accuracy, completeness or fairness. Opinions and estimates may be changed without notice and involve a number of assumptions which may not prove valid. Past performance is not indicative of future results.

We are not acting as your financial adviser or in any other fiduciary capacity in respect of this proposed transaction or any other transaction with you unless otherwise agreed in writing.

We or our affiliates or persons associated with us or such affiliates ("Associated Persons") may at any time maintain as part of our hedging or trading activities a long or short position in securities referred to herein or underlying constituents thereof, or in related futures or options, purchase or sell, make a market in, or engage in any other transaction involving such securities, as well as earn brokerage or other compensation. Whilst Deutsche Bank's trading or hedging activities are not intended to have any significant impact upon prices, our dealings could affect the price you pay or receive for transactions in these or related securities.

Derivative calculations set out in the term sheet may be complex and linked to a particular market measure, reference entity, security or credit, the performance of which may affect the amount or timing of payments to be made or received in connection with this proposed transaction. As such, the proposed transaction may not be suitable for persons unfamiliar with such calculations or unwilling or unable to bear the risks associated with the transaction. The securities referred to herein involve risk, which may include interest rate, index, currency, credit, political, liquidity, time value, commodity and market risk. In addition, the proposed transactions denominated in a currency other than the investor's home currency will be subject to changes in exchange rates, which may have an adverse effect on the value, price or income return of such transactions. These risks are interrelated in complex ways, and as a result, the effect of any one factor may be offset or magnified by the effect of another factor, and the term sheet does not identify all the risks (direct or indirect) or other considerations which you might consider to be material in your independent assessment of the proposed transaction. Without limiting the above, potential investors may read more about pertinent risks of entering into a derivative transaction of this nature at www.globalmarkets.db.com/riskdisclosure

You may not distribute this document, in whole or in part, without our express written permission. The distribution of this document and availability of the product and/or services described herein may be restricted or regulated by law in certain jurisdictions.
