H&C,

Per our conversation you agree that KCP allocations can come off top before PB/PCS breakdown? Its 3 clients where we have allocations. If so I will discuss w Mike I.

Caroline, as far as I understand, the KCP accounts are Epstein, Rose and Wolfson (Daniel Wolfson will be in the book) -- so far. I guess Bollag is not KCP, but he should be, based upon size -- but there is no KCP interaction here, as far as I know. In short, the KCP accounts should get an allocation before the PCS/PB split, but Mike Iaquina tells me adamantly that he has no instructions about a KCP carve-out, and he needs those instructions from you, Haig and Chip.

Maybe you might call Iaquina? He is at 212 250 9224. Best, --Josh

I spoke to Chip yesterday, and I think we still have a real problem with these special allocations not coming off the top. If they come out of the PB allocation, they are three times more "expensive". Can you try to get that pre-split allocation to take place? Chip said he was talking to you. I have not spoken to Haig, which I think makes sense . . .

Hi. Butenhoff is an active client; not new. He trades a decent amount -- so we have about $55k of revs with him ytd -- which means he is real -- and, separately, RV has business with him, including loans. She is also very old friends. If he gets 500 shares, that might be nice. The other guy is Bollag, a billionaire that RV made this big deal about since yesterday. He has $100mm + in the firm. Best regards, --Josh

I don't think Michael would have any qualms about opening a DBAB account if its required. I've had some discussions with him in the past regarding purchasing CLOs via the PIC desk so I don't think it would hurt having an account open on the PCS side. It may be a way to facilitate some more activity from him moving forward...

I'll talk to Josh when he returns from a meeting and we'll see what we have to do to get this started.

Thanks,
Sean

From a business perspective I am supportive given the importance of the overall PB relationship. From a regulatory perspective, can we do this if he doesn't have an open brokerage account?
