

Important Information About Your Statement

Accounts are subject to the General Terms For Accounts and Services and applicable appendices and account agreements. Your accounts, unless otherwise indicated on the statement, are held by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (the "Bank"), Member FDIC.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Funds Transfers (personal accounts only)

Telephone or write to the Bank if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about an electronic transaction on a statement or receipt. The phone number for inquiries is printed on the front of this statement. The address for inquiries appears below. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

Please direct all inquiries to your J.P. Morgan team at:
[REDACTED]
Newark, DE 19713-2107

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this (20 business days for new accounts), we will recredit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non Electronic Transfers

Contact the bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing no later than 30 days after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.
