Client News

As part of our ongoing commitment to improve our client communications, we are modifying certain asset classifications that appear on client statements. Beginning with your March 2011 statement, these classifications will now be aligned with information published online and in all Client Reviews. Please see your March statement for further details. Please contact your J.P. Morgan Client Service Team if you have any questions or need additional information.

TurboTax Import Now Available For Your Investment Accounts

If you utilize Intuit's TurboTax software, you can now import your tax information automatically.
