A clearer description of transaction terms used in account statements
This message is to make you aware of new language that will be used to describe a type of transaction in account statements and online activities:

Beginning July 22, 2013, if you cash a check and it is returned to us without being paid, the transaction will be listed on your statement as Cashed Check Returned. This is not a new transaction type. It is simply a clearer description of this type of account activity.

Currently, a single term (Deposited Item Returned) is used to describe two types of of transactions: deposited and cashed items that are returned to us without being paid.

After July 22, this term will only be used to indicate a deposited check that is returned.

All other terms and conditions for your account(s) remain the same.

Please contact your J.P. Morgan team if you have any questions or require more information

Important Information About Your Statement

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Funds Transfers

Call or write to the Bank (Consumers should use the phone number and address on front of statement and non-consumers their J.P. Morgan Team contact information.) if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect, or if you need more information about an electronic transaction on a statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

Tell us your name and account number.

Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.

Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non-Electronic Transfers (Checks or Deposits):

possible after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.
