Information About Your Account

Crediting of Payments: You may make payments by any of the options listed below. The amount of your payment should be at least your minimum payment due, payable in U.S. dollars and drawn or payable through a U.S. financial institution of the U.S. branch of a foreign financial institution. You can pay down balances faster by paying more than the minimum payment or the total unpaid balance on your account.

You may make payments by regular U.S. mail. Send your payment to the Payments address shown on the statement. Your payments by mail must comply with the instructions on this statement. Do not send cash. Write your Account number on your check or money order. Payments must be accompanied by the payment coupon in the envelope provided with our address label through the envelope window; the envelope cannot contain more than one payment or coupon; and there can be no stamps, post-its, tape or correspondence included with your payment. If your payment is in accordance with our payment instructions and it is able to be received on any day by 5:00 p.m. local time at our Payments address on this statement, we will credit the payment to your Account as of that day. If your payment is in accordance with our payment instructions, but it is made available to us after 5:00 p.m. local time at the Payments address on this statement, we will credit it to your Account as of the next calendar day.

You may make payments electronically through all methods shown on this statement. It may take your completed request one or more weeks by 8 p.m. Eastern Time. We will credit your payment as of that day. If we receive your request after 8 p.m. Eastern Time, we will credit your payment as of the next calendar day. If you specify a future date in your request we will credit your payment as of that day.

For all other payments or for any payment type above for which you do not follow our payment instructions, crediting of your payments may be delayed for up to 5 days.

Account Information Reported to Credit Bureaus: We may report information about your Account to credit bureaus. Late payments, interest payments or other defaults on your Account may be reflected in your credit record. If you think we have reported inaccurate information to a credit bureau, you may write to us at the bureau's address shown on this statement.

Notice About Electronic Check Collection: When you pay by check, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution. Call the Customer Service number on this statement if you have questions about electronic check collection or do not want your payments collected electronically.

Conditional Payments: Any payment check or other form of payment that you send to us for less than the full amount due that is marked "void if paid" or contains a similar notation, or that you otherwise tender in full satisfaction of a disputed amount, must be sent to Card Services, P.O. Box 15049, Wilmington, DE 19850-0449. We reserve all our rights regarding these payments (e.g., if it is determined there is no valid dispute or if any such check is received at any other address, we may accept the check and you will still owe any remaining balance). We may refuse to accept any such payment by returning it to you, not cashing it or destroying it. All other payments that you make should be sent to the regular Payment address shown on this statement.

Annual Renewal Notice: If your Account Agreement has an annual membership fee and/or annual charge for insurance or availability of your account, it will be billed each year or in monthly or quarterly installments. This fee and/or charge are owed whether or not you use your Account, and you agree to pay them when billed. The annual fee and charge are non-refundable unless you notify us that you wish to close your account within 30 days of the billing cycle (whichever is later) after we provide the statement on which the annual fee or charge is billed and at the same time you pay your outstanding balance in full. If you do this, for a charge billed more often than annually such as a monthly service charge, you will not owe the last billed charge; however, prior billed charges are non-refundable and must be paid as part of paying your outstanding balance in full. Your payment of the annual fee or charge does not affect our rights to close your Account and to limit your right to make transactions on your Account. If your Account is closed by you or us, we will continue to impose the annual fee and/or charge until you pay your outstanding balance in full and terminate your Account relationship.

Calculation of Balances Subject to Interest Rate: To figure your periodic interest charges for each billing cycle when a daily periodic rate(s) applies, we use the daily balance method (including new transactions). To figure your periodic interest charges for each billing cycle when a monthly periodic rate(s) applies, we use the average daily balance method (including new transactions). For an explanation of other methods, or questions about a particular interest charge calculation on your statement, please call us at the toll-free customer service phone number listed above.

We calculate periodic interest charges separately for each feature. For example, purchases, balance transfers, cash advances, or overdraft advances. These calculations may combine different categories with the same periodic rates. Variable rates will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate or such other instrument in your Account Agreement. There is a transaction fee for each balance transfer, each advance, or check transaction in the amount stated in your Account Agreement. There is a foreign transaction fee of 2% of the U.S. dollar amount of any foreign transaction for some accounts. Please see your Account Agreement for information about these fees.

We add transactions and fees to your daily balance to reflect them:

- 1) the date of the transaction - for new purchases, balance transfers, overdraft advances or cash advances;
2) the date the paper deposit the check - for new cash advance checks or balance transfer checks;
3) the date of a direct transaction, the date they are posted to your account, or the last day of the billing cycle, whichever we may choose - for fees.

How to Avoid Paying Interest on Purchases: Your due date will be a minimum of 21 days after the close of each billing cycle. If you pay your account in full each billing period by the date and time due, no interest is charged on new purchases month to month. Also, we will not impose interest charges on any portion of a purchase balance you carry while that balance is subject to an interest-free period. Subject to any interest-free period for new purchases, we will begin charging interest from the date a transaction (including any balance transfer, cash advance or overdraft advance, fee or interest charge) is added to your daily balance until your account is paid in full. Because we apply payments in order of your retention payment first to higher rate balances, you may not be able to avoid interest charges on new purchases if you have another balance at a higher interest rate unless you pay your balance in full each month.

What to Do if You Think You Find a Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us on a separate sheet at Customer Service, P.O. Box 15258, Wilmington, DE 19850-5258. You may also contact us on the web at chases.com.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and Account number.
• Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
• Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential error in writing prior to the web at chases.com. You may call us, but if you do so we are not required to investigate any potential error and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
• The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
• While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the recouping of your balance.
• We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights if You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchase

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

- 1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Refunds of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we sent the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that account your credit card Account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at Customer Service, P.O. Box 15258, Wilmington, DE 19850-5258 or on the web at chases.com.

While we investigate the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will let you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.
