I am not sure what to do about my flight to Cape Town. Business class is extremely expensive but I just struggle to do the long haul in coach, which also is usually not as flexible with changes (I want cancelable and flexible while we are having this period waiting for laptop) I do have enough on my own to manage to pay for a business class ticket and feel like it's not fair to ask you, you give me everything in life. On the other hand I don't know what you would expect and how you feel about me getting it myself. I would not feel upset in any way at all. (I have found the best option of fare combined with route is klm via Amsterdam.) I am thinking to leave on the 23rd and come back any time after the 29th that you would like me to. (Wedding is on 28)

the laptop is ok, no worry,

This text just came to my phone 1 minute ago from Woody Allen..."Article on Patterson makes no mention of you and removes all seriousness from his whole enterprise. Clearly a venal attempt to make money including ,people will understand, foolish tabloid writing. I see him as no threat to you."
