Sorry for mass confusion today trying to drive out of mountains.and deal with these 2 guys Ravens very easy kraft too many people advising him but after call he calked back and said wants me and my Quinn Emanuel guy to handle it. The other guy trying to weasel in was dan conley. Don't know anything about him but having a Boston guy come down and trying to overpower these line assistants would be huge mistake and kraft got it. I'll give you factual details when I have them. Thanks for your help
