How long has she had it? Is it small bumps right now or lesions? Is affecting her lungs and breathing?

[REDACTED] just hit the winning spike for for this team to win their second to last game for the championship. I can't thank you enough for making this experience possible for her!

[REDACTED]
how cool

09:00:26 pm

[REDACTED]
She played so well and they won their division today and the reason this is so huge is because up until 5 months ago, she was afraid of a ball ever hitting her and had never been on a proper team before.

Life changing.

🥰🥰
