There are a few flights on Monday but all super expensive. The tickets you are holding cannot be changed. The are very restricted tickets. Brand new tickets must be purchased. I'm sure the hotel can keep your bags safe so you can enjoy the day after checking out.

Hi, Lesley !

So there is no any direct flights on Monday during the day/morning?
Let me ask the hotel if I can extend the room , cause we are supposed to check out on Monday .

Hi [REDACTED]...this flight only has one seat left in Biz class. Jeffrey says I can book you and your friend on the direct, red eye flight if you prefer. It departs at 11:30pm and arrive New York at 7:30am. Please let me know if you want me to book this flight for you both. Have FUN!!!!!! thanks, Lesley
