Good day to you Ghislaine,

Although you may not celebrate it, perhaps Monsieur E. does and I wanted to wish both of you anyway lovely Thanksgiving times.

I had yet another very pleasant surprise the other day when [REDACTED] your masseuse, called me to say JE had kindly presented me with a complimentary hour of pure relaxation. I guess I must have looked a little tenser than usual last time we met but then again it is a great present. Do thank him form me please.

It is scheduled for Tuesday 9th December 2003. I shall write to you all about my very first massage ever...

Hoping the turkey is tasty, the stuffing yummy and the pecan pie crunchy, I'll love you and leave you for now. Cheerio. JMb
