Hi there,

I'm a senior journalist for News Corporation (The Sun, NY Post, Wall St Journal) covering the USA V Ghislaine Maxwell case.

I'll be in court for the bail hearing tomorrow but wanted to put a few questions to your team in advance as I know Tuesday will be extremely busy for everyone involved.

- What will the prosecution be arguing in court tomorrow?
- Will any alleged victims or witnesses be taking the stand on Tuesday? If so, how many (and who are they)? What can the court expect to hear from them?
- Will any prosecutors, victims or witnesses be making a statement to the media outside the court before or after the hearing? If so, could you please let me know a time and place if one is scheduled along with any other relevant details?
- Anything to add?

Would you please also include me in any future emails/alerts etc to the media regarding this case?

Thank you.

Kind regards,
Megan Palin
