Sean,

The NYOC received a phone call from [REDACTED] claiming to work for a [REDACTED] magazine that had contact with a female that flew on Jeffrey Epstein's Plane. When we asked [REDACTED] for her contact information she seemed nervous. We provided [REDACTED] with the NY Office email address to which she was amenable.

Subject: Epstein info

Hello

I work for a publication in [REDACTED], Europe.

We have discovered that a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was several times a passenger on Jeffrey Epstein's private plane in 1996 and 1997. Attached is a passenger list made public on the Internet in the last week.

The attached file shows: Flight log, with ([REDACTED] in log) traveling from [REDACTED] [REDACTED], each time with 'JE' – Jeffrey Epstein.

We know from media stories that the FBI wants to speak to anyone who was a passenger on Epstein's plane.

We would like to know if the FBI would be interested in speaking to [REDACTED]?

Many thanks and regards
