[REDACTED]
FBI Operational Support Technician [REDACTED]

- Showed [REDACTED] chains of custody for property acquired from PBPD
  - [REDACTED] identified as list of what [REDACTED] took from PBPD in August 2006
  - [REDACTED] recalled that PBPD had executed a search warrant; on August 28, 2006, [REDACTED] and other agents went to PBPD and obtained all of their evidence; think may have been by GJ subpoena; took original evidence that PBPD seized while executing a search warrant as well as interviews of girls
- Showed [REDACTED] notes and 302 for 2006 interview of [REDACTED]
  - [REDACTED] identified notes and 302 as written by [REDACTED]; identified [REDACTED] handwriting on notes
  - Interviewed [REDACTED] remember flying to [REDACTED] and interviewing [REDACTED] within 2 hours of touching down and flying out the next day
  - [REDACTED] thinks they interviewed [REDACTED] at her house
  - [REDACTED]s typical practice was that the other agent took notes if [REDACTED] was leading the witness interview; [REDACTED] practice was to review the 302 and make sure everything in the 302 was what she recalled and reflected her recollection; two people listed on 302 are present at the interview
  - [REDACTED] practice was to initial the 302 to reflect its accuracy
  - FBI was going from ACS to Sentinel at this time; 302 may be a copy; 302 is in Sentinel once agent reviews it and says it's accurate
  - 302 being in the system with [REDACTED] name on it means that [REDACTED] reviewed the 302; both agents have to review and sign off on the 302 as true and accurate
- Showed [REDACTED] certain message pads from FBI custody
  - [REDACTED] practice was to mark evidence with 1B sheet
  - Showed [REDACTED] handwritten sheet in 1B1-1 folder; [REDACTED] handwriting; sheet indicates to [REDACTED] that message pad was removed for evidence review and maintained in safe
  - Writing on 1B1 (Item #2) manila envelope – not [REDACTED] handwriting
  - Discussed [REDACTED] coming to NY to review evidence in person
- Stopped working on JE case in approximately 2009
- [REDACTED] not aware of anything exculpatory as to GM; her investigation was not focused on GM; they were focused on JE and three assistants
