Hi [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] here, I have marked my calendar for the 20th at 11:30 AM, I believe you have my home and cell numbers so feel free to call. I did mention to the investigator that I do not have any photos or documents at my home and will be answering questions from memory. I will attempt to get copies of the property receipts from the Palm Beach Police Dept Headquarters on Monday, 5-10-2021.

Thank you,
[REDACTED], Retired.

Good afternoon,

Thank you very much for reaching out. The date and time of the videocall is Thursday, May 20th at 11:30am. New York federal court does not subject prosecution witnesses to depositions, so you will not be deposed in advance of trial. I will be happy to discuss the schedule and process in more detail when we speak on the 20th.

Thank you again for your help and willingness to speak with us – our team really appreciates it.

Best,

[REDACTED]

Good Saturday morning, I did receive the link and will await the date and time of the meeting. I do not have any notes or copies of the report/ property receipts currently to work on, Monday, I will reach out to PBPD for copies to work from.

In the State of Florida, we are subject to depositions by opposing counsels, is that a possibility if I receive such a request from the Defense?

Thank you,
