

From: [REDACTED]

To: [REDACTED]

Subject: Outside Caller

Date: Thu, 16 Jul 2020 15:33:05 +0000

Importance: Normal

Inline-Images: Outlook-ji3pjxnk.jpg

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Good Morning Det. [REDACTED],

You received a call from attorney Ary Taub who called on behalf of his client [REDACTED]. Mr. Taub was advised by [REDACTED], a victim related to the Jeffrey Epstein case, to have received a call from you this week either on Monday or Tuesday. Mr. Taub also believes his client might have wrongly recorded the name of the detective or special agent who contacted her. If you had in fact attempted to contact Mr. Taub's client, he would like a call back at [REDACTED].

v/r,

[REDACTED]

NEW YORK OPERATIONS CENTER

[REDACTED]

Confidentiality Statement:

**** This message may contain information that is deliberative process privileged information****

This message is transmitted to you by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This message, along with any attachments, may be privileged or otherwise protected. If you are not the intended recipient of this information, please destroy it promptly without further retention or dissemination (unless otherwise required by law). Please notify the sender of the error by a separate email or by calling FBI-New York at [REDACTED].

Be aware that as a Department of Justice (DOJ) 'best practice' recommendation, Personally Identifiable Information (PII) such as CCH/DMV information is not routinely disseminated electronically via UNET/FBI-issued mobile device. Per the Privacy Act, the FBI is responsible for protecting and conserving government property, which includes government records (See 28 C.F.R. § 45.4(c); 5 C.F.R. § 2635.704). However, an exception may be made if the requestor has a "need to know" the information in the performance of his/her official duties. FBI employees shall not disclose PII about an individual to persons outside the DOJ other than for an authorized official business purpose.