Hi [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] – I know that Alex wants us to stay out of the decision-making process, but allowing [REDACTED] and the DAAG to hear only one side of the story let's Epstein's people make things up. This is exactly what Epstein's lawyers did with the State Attorney – making up false stories about the police detective who investigated the case. We, of course, looked at the allegations carefully and determined that they were false.

I think Alex needs to communicate the truth to [REDACTED], or, at least, the history of Epstein's people making false allegations. Perhaps you want to provide them with a copy of the letter that I sent to Jay Lefkowitz during his last round of accusing me of misconduct.

Thank you.
