wow! well this is all news to me! But honestly, I was surprised he went to Paris in the first place!

I'll bet you are jet lagged! Ugh! If I hear anything I will let you know..but not a peep so far...

I do have someone flying in to see JE on Thursday and departing on Friday from Paris at 6:10pm..not that that really means anything as he could always have me cancel it!

Take care and get some rest...
