Jennifer...is this address where Chad resides? We are slightly concerned that in the 'off chance' customs decides to keep the package for a bit (which they can totally decide to do regardless of us putting down on the documents the package contains only sunglasses) it could delay the delivery...We are thinking best to send to a permanent address where Chad lives/works...Please let us know if we should still send to Aspen ...or someplace else...thanks!
[REDACTED] (delivery will go out tomorrow...HOPING package will arrive Friday...)

there any way to schedule the meeting for tomorrow at 10am EDT? Also, would it be possible to conduct the meeting via Webex instead of Skype? I'm not sure if you're familiar with Webex, but the program allows us to share our desktop and present visual material.
