Awww really? That's so sweet. I will definitely come to see her as soon as I am back. Calling her second day and can't reach her I guess I am not at a good luck with timing. Yes but I want to be strong, positive and happy when around her to make her feel the same.

Despite the prognosis, I believe in magic and if you approach your illnesses with strong and positive thoughts, even the most lethal diseases are curable. She deserves to live a long life and share more happy and enjoyable moments with her family.

I hope the trial treatment works for her. Thoughts and prayers are with lynn for sure. She would love to see you. She even told me you were going to visit. And it is ok to cry. She needs to cry a little also. And then just listen and let her talk and be there for her.

That's very nice [REDACTED]! I am soooo glad you went there and made her feel better. Thank you! [REDACTED] told me that you guys both were there. I also feel so sad for her and wanted to call after I heard the result but was afraid I could have started to cry if she were. I also feel bad that can't visit her I tried to call her today but she might have slept, didn't pick up. Talked to Jojo and [REDACTED] instead. I will visit as soon as I am back.

Between us, Jeffery said that [REDACTED] will start a new [REDACTED] that is not out yet but only going through a trial... But if it works then there is a good chance to prolong her life for a year or two... So my prays are on and fingers crossed for her and new treatment success!

I'm soooo happy I went to see her. She was actually quite upbeat and happy to see me ... We talked for over two and half hours... She was definitely very tired when I left and wanted to sleep. She is nauseous and dizzy but very lucid. Just feel so badly for her [REDACTED].
