I'll bet he is already back at the hospital, but give him until 10am to knock on the door

[REDACTED], last night Darren had to sleep on the couch in 7J. [REDACTED] he needed a place to sleep. They were supposed to have a room at [REDACTED] but it didn't work out. Anyway, he said he would just sleep on the couch and not mess things up, but can you have a look in there today to just make double sure that everything is 100% perfect for [REDACTED] guests arriving tomorrow? He may have used a towel or thrown something in garbage ... You can do this when you meet [REDACTED] later today around 4pm to clean 11B.

Thanks
