"When you go in search of honey you must expect to be stung by bees." - Joseph Joubert

"It's what you learn after you know it all that counts." - John Wooden

"Life becomes harder for us when we live for others, but it also becomes richer and happier." - Albert Schweitzer

"Do not let Sunday be taken from you. If your soul has no Sunday, it becomes an orphan." - Albert Schweitzer

"Rivers know this: there is no hurry. We shall get there some day." - A.A. Milne, Winnie-the-Pooh

"The tragedy of life is what dies inside a man while he lives." - Albert Schweitzer

"We who lived in the concentration camps can remember the men who walked through the huts comforting others, giving away their last piece of bread. They may have been few in number, but they offer sufficient proof that everything can be taken from a man but one thing: The last of his freedoms—to choose one's attitude in any given set of circumstances, to choose one's own way." - Viktor E. Frankl

"It's snowing still," said Eeyore gloomily.

"So it is."

"And freezing."

"Is it?"

"Yes," said Eeyore. "However," he said, brightening up a little, "we haven't had an earthquake lately."
- A.A. Milne, Winnie-the-Pooh
