Ok. I would follow up tomorrow morning and make sure they found the records and are actively working on the new quote. I would hate for them to say in 2 days they were so sorry but still looking for our past records or something. I deal with people for JE all the time and I know they think I am "thorough" 😊 or perhaps a pest and annoying! But I keep on top of them so that I get my answer for Jeffrey. ...and maybe if they find our records today they could get the quote to us tomorrow with a little nudge call tomorrow morning 🙌 (and if you need help, Bebe or I would be happy to call for you tomorrow am! Your list is huge!)

>> Morning! I know your punch list states if Mr Nester has not found the 2 new fuel pumps by Sept 30 to find a new vendor, but I really think some due diligence should be going on now just in case. Jeffrey seemed really 'hot' on this...Anna, have you researched other vendors yet? If so, you can give Bebe their names/numbers and she can help. Or Can you Please pass along exactly what make/model (item number(s)) and description and Bebe can start helping research today where else we can purchase the fuel pumps? She can also call Mr Nester today and follow up with him to see where he is with them. Bebe, tell him you are Anna's assistant. (Can you give Bebe his number?). 😊 thanks, Lesley
