Hi Lesley,

Since Monday is a holiday, I won't be in the office but will of course be on email. I am not sure if you know anything more about Jeffrey's availability for Tuesday or not. I was just curious so I could finalize Leon's schedule by tomorrow. We will be in the office tomorrow because it will be graduation day here at Bard. If you won't know until this weekend or Monday, that's fine.

The other day we had mentioned was Thursday the 28th.

Have a fabulous holiday weekend!!

Catherine
