Hi Jeffrey,
Thanks again for all. I'm seeing Dmitry Itskov who is a radical "out of the box" thinker: <http://2045.com/> next week. He's been funding radical work (keeping brains alive and interfaced to computers) and relocating from Moscow to NY. Let me know if you'd be interested in having a conversation with him.

Would love to continue our discussion regarding interpersonal and group dynamics in negotiation and collaboration and also the proposition. I'll be in NY again from Wednesday through Saturday if you have any free slots.

Thanks again for the hospitality!
