Hi Russell! All is well (LOVE the weekends with my family :) Hope you are having a good one too!

Honestly, I have not heard a peep from Jeffrey when it comes to a new designer, what his plans are with Gregory or a new assistant! I think Jeffrey would talk to Rich about this before me. I can tell you we had a new girl come to us about 5 months ago (she is a friend of one of Jeffrey's current assistants) and this girl is doing well...Jeffrey seems to like her, she is traveling with him and its working out. She is not a 'lead' assistant for sure (which is what we have you looking for) but she is footing the bill for this time. I think Jeffrey is always on the look out for exceptional people however. You know the drill...

Anyway, if I do hear anything I will let you know of course.
